I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs submit these proposed voir dire questions to comply with paragraph B(4) of the Court's pretrial preparation standing order, but believe that such submission may be premature because the parties' motions in limine, any agreed jury questionnaire, and the Court's directions at the pretrial conference may likely change the questions Plaintiff's counsel will need to ask the jury. As such, Plaintiff reserves his right to amend these questions, as well as to ask questions through a jury questionnaire, the contents of which are not yet decided (although the parties have communicated with the Court about starting the process of having prospective jurors fill out a written questionnaire). Plaintiff respectfully submits the following questions, which may need to be amended or supplemented in light of the Court's orders and instructions to the parties:

II. PROPOSED VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

1. Have you ever filed a lawsuit or been sued? What kind of case? What are your thoughts about the experience?
2. Have you ever served on a jury? How many times? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did you come to a verdict? What did you dislike about your prior jury experience?
3. How long have you lived at your current residence?
4. Have you heard about any recent jury verdicts? What was your reaction when you heard about the verdict?
5. Do you engage in any volunteer activities or are you a member of any organization that you contribute time or money to? Which ones?

- 1 6. Where do you get your news? Newspapers? Television? The Internet? Which papers,
2 stations, or sites do you use frequently?
3
4 7. Have you ever purchased a house, condominium, or apartment? Have you ever been
5 foreclosed on? Have you ever had a friend or relative who was foreclosed on?
6
7 8. What is your general opinion about attorneys?
8
9 9. What is your general opinion about class action lawsuits?
10
11 10. Have you or any close friend or relative ever been employed in the real estate industry, for 12 example, as an appraiser or realtor? If so, what was your relationship to the person? What 13 was the person's job?
14
15 11. Have you or any close friend or relative ever been employed in the banking or mortgage
16 industry, for example as an appraiser, loan officer or underwriter? If so, what was your 17 relationship to the person? What was the person's job? What was your opinion of their job?
18
19 12. What are your favorite television shows?
20
21 13. What were the last three books that you read for pleasure?
